Section 7 [in draft new numbering]. Vacancies

The membership shall proceed to fill any vacancy except as provided herein at the next monthly meeting after the vacancy occurs, provided that timely notice of the meeting includes such election to fill a vacancy. The vacant office(s) may by majority vote be filled on an interim basis but nominations shall be taken for election at the next meeting and timely notice given. If the occurrence of the vacancy has not allowed for timely notice thereof, the membership shall take nominations for election to fill the vacancy at the next meeting. Timely notices of vacancy and election to fill vacancies must also be given to the park supervisor. ~~Provided that at least ten days notice of the election is provided to the members.~~

A vacancy via resignation may be without formal notice provided an officer can show reasonable evidence (including in media) of such resignation to a meeting and a majority at the meeting declares the vacancy. Officers who miss two consecutive meetings without notice to the president, secretary or body shall be considered to have resigned their office.

After any vacancy has been filled a new Registration Form is to be completed and submitted to the Chicago Park District immediately.
