

APRIL 22 AND MAY 6- A FULL SUITE OF EVENTS FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY IN JACKSON PARK, brought to you or co-sponsored by Jackson Park Advisory Council (There are still spaces available for the April 22 movie, which has been moved to the gym. See link below. This notice is also attached printable. GMO)

APRIL 22, SATURDAY

- Wooded Island Volunteer Workday, 10am – noon. We will be replenishing the chip trail through the center of the Island. Enter from the south (off 63rd/Hayes). If you are late, we will be working from the middle of the west concrete path. Questions? Jerry Levy- sjlevy@jeromelevylaw.com.
- 57th Street Beach Cleanup, Noon-2pm. You can park southeast of the museum (pay machines) and use the underpasses. As an extra treat, we expect to have some stories and songs by Andy Carter.
- Afterwards, you can help the Midway PAC work west of Stony Island- also with stories and songs, or Listen to Chicago Children's Choir members as they traverse Wooded Island from the south end starting at 2:30, past Skylanding and over to the Music Court (south of the parking southeast of MSI)—you may want to join their work project after 3. And Come on out and see those cherry trees between the lagoons and the Columbia Basin everyone is talking about.
- FILM AT 4:30 AT THE FIELDHOUSE- Film Screening of "THE CITY DARK" as part of the One Earth Film Festival, with remarks from Mike Strautmanis of The Barack Obama Foundation, Naomi Davis of Blacks in Green and JPAC President Louise McCurry. This is a free event, however, please register for tickets at the following link to ensure a spot... https:// www.eventbrite.com/e/ the-city-dark-earth-dayjack son-park-tickets-333146169 16

MAY 6, SATURDAY

- INTERNATIONAL MIGRATORY BIRD DAY. 9 AM-NOON. All activities start from the Bobolink Meadow /driving range parking lot / Bobolink entrance (roadway off Hayes/63rd). Family Activities include
 - Build a bird house or feeder
 - Take a bird walk or nature/history tour
 - Learn about bird life and migration – and more
- 8:45-10:30 pm- JANE'S WALK CHICAGO FLASHLIGHT TOUR. From the Golden Lady on 63rd/Hayes between Cornell and Lake Shore Drive.

As always, you can find JPAC's events online at... <http://www.jacksonparkadvisorycouncil.org/events/>. Sign up for the Jackson Park Newsletter (electronic or paper) from garyossewaarde@yahoo.com. We thank our many partners and volunteers.